ACT

To provide for the remuneration of judges; the granting of additional service benefits to them; for the making available of motor vehicles to them; and for matters connected therewith.

BE IT ENACTED by the National Assembly of the Republic of Namibia, as follows:-

1. Definitions

In this Act, unless the context indicates otherwise, "judge" means any person holding, or any person who at the date of commencement of this Act, held the office of -

- (a) Chief Justice or additional judge of the Supreme Court of Namibia; or
- (b) Judge-President or additional judge of the High Court of Namibia.

2. Remuneration of judges

- (1) Any person who holds office as a judge, whether in an acting or ad hoc or permanent capacity, shall in respect thereof be paid an annual non-taxable allowance and a monthly salary at the rates specified in the second column of the First and Second Schedule, respectively, opposite the designation of the office in which the judge concerned serves.

[subsection (1) amended by Act 24 of 1994]

- (2) Any salary and allowance payable in terms of subsection (1), shall be paid from the State Revenue Fund out of moneys appropriated by the National Assembly for that purpose.

3. Amendment of First Schedule

[Section 3(1) was amended by Act 24 of 1994 to give the President power to amend the Second Schedule rather than the First Schedule by Proclamation, but the heading of section 3 was not amended accordingly; it should have been changed to read "Amendment of Second Schedule".]

- (1) The President, acting on recommendation of the Judicial Service Commission, may by proclamation in the Gazette amend the second column of the Second Schedule so as to increase the rates specified therein.

[subsection (1) amended by Act 24 of 1994]

- (2) A proclamation in terms of subsection (1) may be issued with retrospective effect as from a date which may not be earlier than one year prior to the date of the proclamation.

4. Date of commencement of tenure of office of judge

The date of commencement of the tenure of office of a judge shall be the date of his or her appointment as such by the President.

5. Regulations

- (1) The President may, after consultation with the Judicial Service Commission, make regulations as to additional service benefits of judges.
- (2) Any benefit payable in terms of any regulation made under subsection (1), shall be paid from the State Revenue Fund out of moneys appropriated by the National Assembly for that purpose.

6. Making available of motor vehicles to judges

A motor vehicle owned by the State may on such conditions as the President may determine, be made available to any person who holds office as a judge in a permanent or acting capacity, for use, in accordance with directions so determined, in the course of his or her official functions as well as for his or her private purposes.

7. Repeal of laws and saving

- (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), the laws specified in the Second Schedule are hereby repealed.

[Act 24 of 1994 added a new Schedule to the Act and made the existing Second Schedule into the Third Schedule. However, subsection 7(1) was not amended accordingly; it should now refer to the Third Schedule.]

- (2) Any direction determined under any provision of any law repealed by subsection (1), shall, unless such direction is inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been determined under the corresponding provision of this Act.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act, any directions in force by virtue of the provisions of subsection (2), shall be construed in accordance with the provisions of this Act, in so far as they relate to those provisions, unless it would in any particular case be obviously inappropriate.
- (4) Any right or benefit acquired or accrued under a provision of any law repealed by subsection (1), or the regulations made thereunder shall, in so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been acquired or accrued under the corresponding provision of this Act or the regulations made thereunder.
