2. Conflict of laws

If there is a conflict between a provision in a law and these regulations the provisions of these regulations prevail.

3. Restricted areas and period of lockdown

- (1) For the purposes of these regulations the areas specified in Annexure A are restricted areas.
- (2) The President may by way of amendment to these regulations amend Annexure A, by adding an area or by removing an area.
- (3) The period of lockdown starts at 14:00 on Saturday 28 March 2020 and ends at 23:59 on 17 April 2020, inclusive of the first and the last day.

4. Closure of schools and higher education institutions

All schools and higher education institutions in Namibia must remain closed during the period starting 28 March 2020 and ending 17 April 2020, but the relevant minister responsible for education may at any time extend that period during the State of Emergency period.

5. Public gatherings

- (1) For the purpose of this regulation, a "public gathering" is a gathering of more than 10 persons for a collective purpose, but does not include a situation where such number of persons coincidentally find themselves at a specific place at the same time.
- (2) An authorised officer may instruct a public gathering to disperse and may use all reasonable measures to cause a public gathering to disperse.
- (3) A person who during the period of lockdown facilitates, instigates or organises a public gathering, commits an offence and is on conviction liable to a fine not exceeding N$2 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.
- (4) A person who fails or refuses to obey an instruction issued under subregulation (2) commits an offence and is on conviction liable to the penalties provided for in subregulation (3).

6. Prohibition relating to travel and permit requirement

- (1) During the period of lockdown, a person may not -
  - (a) enter into or depart from a restricted area; or
  - (b) travel from one restricted area to another restricted area.
- (2) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with subregulation (1) commits an offence and is on conviction liable to a fine not exceeding N$2 000 or to imprisonment for a period of six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.
- (3) If an authorised officer finds a person under circumstances which create a reasonable suspicion that the person is likely to contravene subregulation (1), that authorised officer may instruct the person to stop the journey in question and failure to obey such an instruction is deemed to be a contravention of, or failure to comply with, subregulation (1), and that person is liable to the penalties provided for in subregulation (2).
- (4) A person -
  - (a) who holds a permit referred to in subregulation (5) does not contravene subregulation (1) if he or she enters or departs or travels as contemplated in that subregulation; and
  - (b) referred to in subregulation (6) does not contravene subregulation (1) if he or she enters or departs or travels as contemplated in that subregulation.
- (5) If a person has to travel to a restricted area or depart from a restricted area, for -
  - (a) purposes of receiving essential medical treatment;
  - (b) purposes of attending a funeral of a close family member, an acquaintance or a dependant;
  - (c) purposes of assisting a close family member, acquaintance or dependant who is ill or otherwise suffers from a distressing situation;
  - (d) any other reason which an authorised officer considers sufficient to warrant the travelling,that person may obtain a permit from an authorised officer nearest to that person or at the point of entry into or exit from a restricted area, authorising travel which would otherwise have been a contravention of subregulation (1).
- (6) A person is exempted from the requirement of obtaining a permit to travel as contemplated in subregulation (5), if that travel is necessary to -
  - (a) transport goods during the course of business or trade;
  - (b) perform an action necessary for the enforcement of law or public order;
  - (c) perform any service necessary to provide medical or health services;
  - (d) facilitate the distribution of food or other necessities of life;
  - (e) maintain or repair infrastructure necessary or useful for the provision of water, electricity, communication or financial services; or
  - (f) to perform any other critical service that cannot reasonably be postponed.

7. Prohibition relating to entry into Namibia

- (1) Subject to subregulation (2) and (3), every person who -
  - (a) is not a Namibian citizen;
  - (b) does not hold a permanent residence permit for Namibia;
